BOOSH NEWS

Sensory play creates friendships and keeps the brain stimulated. At BOOSH we cater for as many senses in our environment for the children to enjoy.

Why?

Self-expression

Therapeutic, emotional release

Language and communication

Experimenting, process not the end product

Our favourite tools- Hands and Feet

Sharing an experience with an older child or a child you have little contact during the school hours can be very rewarding, however we do have some activities where it is great to be on your own exploring and having fun discovering what will happen next if you do this or that.

Music sessions on Tuesday and Friday still have vacancies so if you are keen to have a one on one session with our fine musician Jared come along and learn to play the ukulele or guitar.

We practiced Evacuation/Lockdown Drills last week. All children participated and fully understand the procedures. Well done guys!!!

Years 3 & 4 Bonny Hills Camp

Comments from Students

Maddie & McKinley: When we swam in the pool we played lots of games. We made a whirlpool and got stuck in the mud.

Quandialla & Eryn: Mr Cook’s swing trick was funny. Everyone laughed but Cailie helped him.
YEARS 3 & 4 BONNY HILLS 2014 CAMP

Tahlia: My favourite thing at camp was when Mr Cook fell off the swing. I laughed all the way back to camp. The beach was great because we played lots of games. We went to the beach every single day! The Have-a-Go show was fun, ‘Live Louder’ won. Thank you to the teachers and the staff at camp for organising it.

Josef & Alex: Mr Cook was too heavy and snapped the swing.

Hunter: The camp was great fun, especially the food. We had nachos, bacon and eggs, burgers, lasagne, pancakes. Thank you to the wonderful chefs!

Jedd: I enjoyed the beach and the sand modelling competition.

Piper: There was a lot of jelly fish at the beach so we had to be careful.

Ian & Luke: Mr Cook went on the swing. He went very high and the swing snapped. His fingers got caught in the chain and he fell to the ground.

Nathaniel: My favourite thing at camp was swimming in the pool.

Ash: The food was great! We had nachos, burgers, lasagne, pancakes and chocolate mousse.

Tayla & Tarsha: We both enjoyed going on the beach walks and trying to get everyone to make a big whirlpool in the pool.

Aidan: I really enjoyed everything at camp including going to the beach and swimming in the pool.

Abbey: The best part of camp was spending time with new friends in the cabin.

Astynn & Keali: We thought it was very funny when Mr Cook fell off the swing. Poor Mr Cook!

Dylan: At our school camp we had a swim in the pool. Someone in my cabin snored - I didn't get much sleep.

Harry & Mitch: We really liked the yummy food and it was great fun staying in a cabin with our friends.

Cailie: The food at camp was delicious. The nachos and dessert was the best! I enjoyed camp a lot!

Gabby: My favourite activity at camp was swimming in the pool. The food was also delicious. We also got a talk from the lifeguard about beach safety.

Charlotte: There were 2 great things that happened at camp. Firstly we played a game in the pool and the girls won and secondly, Mr Cook fell off the swing – ouch!

Jayde: On the 12th of November 3&4 went to camp at Bonny Hills. We all enjoyed it and got to know each other really well. Thank you to Miss J, Mrs Hudson, Mr Cook and Sam for making camp lots of fun.
