PRINCIPAL’S COMMENT

NAIDOC Week

Last Thursday’s NAIDOC celebration was a huge success and very well received by our school community. It commenced with a welcome to country by Aboriginal community members, Mr Glenn Hannah and Mr Steven Donovan.

The unveiling of our NAIDOC Week logo was conducted by our Aboriginal students.

After the ceremony our students took part in Aboriginal Education activities on a rotational basis. The day was highlighted by a sausage sizzle lunch that involved the tasting of kangaroo and damper.

The winners of the NAIDOC Week colouring-in competition were:

YEAR K-1: Jaccinta, Eve and Danny
YEAR 1-2: Emily, Joshua and Harrison
YEAR 2-3: Abbey, Taylor and Harry
YEAR 3-4: Astynn, Tahlia and Keali
YEAR 5: Max, Jordan and Tarana
YAR 6: Brooke, Lachlan and Matthew.

We would like to thank our visiting students from Wauchope High School, Olivia and Jimmy Layton. Also a special thank you to Mr Newell for all his wonderful organisation of the day.

COMMENTS FROM YEARS 3-6 ABOUT THE HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS PROGRAM

Kimberly: When we went to Wauchope High School I really enjoyed playing touch football with all of my friends. It was the best run I've ever had.

Astynn: I liked playing Oz Tag, bull rush and football on Friday. My favourite was football. It was lots of fun!

Jayde: I liked sport on Friday. I did basketball and little activities. It was lots of fun!

Ruby: I was in green group with Mrs Arentsen and did touch footy skills down on the oval. It was fun!

Eli: I think that school sport was an awesome day our group leader was Lionel. We played big ball soccer down on the field and my favourite part was when I got hit in the head.

Tarsha: I did basketball and we learnt some skills like dribbling, shooting and playing games. It was really fun.

Harry: We did a warm up game of bull rush and then we played Oz Tag and then bull rush again.

Ruby: I was in green group with Mrs Arentsen and did touch footy skills down on the oval. It was really fun!

Caitlin: When we went to the high school sport we split into groups and I was in red group with Mrs Bromfield. We played soccer in the indoor basketball arena. We had so much fun! Thanks for a great day Year 9!
